Three cohorts were defined based on use of DMTs, with differences in treatment reflected in clinical outcomes. To determine the extent to which changes in UPDRS Part II scores were meaningful to patients, a modified mean to standard deviation ratio (MSDR) calculation was performed as follows:...